TRANSPORTATION

Navigating around a new location can at times be very difficult and worse without any means on how to do that. We have an internal arrangement to help with all transportation needs regarding site seeing.

The Gautrain system has made a major impact on those needing to travel across Johannesburg and between the City of Gold and Pretoria.

The Gautrain is defined as a mass rapid transit railway system, and was constructed in an effort to address the heavy traffic problem in and around Johannesburg and Pretoria in Gauteng. Other software application such as Uber, Bolt and Yango are also helping in easing the difficulty of transportation issues.

CITY GUIDE

South Africa is a large, diverse and incredibly beautiful country. It varies from the picturesque Garden Route towns of the Western Cape to the raw subtropical coast of northern KwaZulu-Natal. The vast Karoo semi-desert stretches across its centre, while one of Africa's premier safari destinations, Kruger National Park, sprawls along the northeast border. The big cities attract immigrants from across the continent, making them great, bubbling cultural crucibles.

Although South Africa is predominantly a dry, sunny country, bear in mind that the chart opposite shows average maximums. June and July temperatures can drop below zero in some places; be prepared for average minimums of 4°C in Johannesburg, 7°C in Cape Town and 11°C in Durban.

South Africa's electricity supply runs at 220/230V, 50Hz AC.

Sockets take unique round-pinned plugs. South Africa's currency is the rand (R), often called the "buck", divided into 100 cents.
